

LICHENS IN EARLHAM CEMETERY, NORWICH

1. Recorded on the 12th May 2018 by Peter Lambley with the Friends of Earlham Cemetery.

Map reference TG209086. 25 species were recorded.

On limestone headstones	On sandstone headstones
Caloplaca dichroa	Candelariella vitellina
Caloplaca flavescens	Lecanora expallens
Caloplaca marmorata	Lecanora muralis (horizontal surface)
Candelariella medians	Lecanora polytropa
Lecanora albescens	Lecanora soralifera
Lecanora campestris	Lepraria incana (also on trees)
Physcia adscendens (also on trees)	Psilolechia lucida
Physcia caesia
Physcia orbicularis
Verrucaria nigrescens
Xanthoria parietina (also on trees)
On trees	On the ground
Lecanora chlarotera	Cladonia fimbriata
Melaelixia subaurifera
Parmelia sulcata
Punctelia jeckerii
Punctelia subrudecta
Xanthoria candelaria

2. Identified from photographs by the Lichen Society:

19th January 2020. (Information supplied by Ian Senior.)

Xanthoria parietina and Physcia tenella
Both on fallen branches of oak.

You can read more about lichens on The British Lichen Society website.

Copyright © 2018 - 2020 Peter Lambley and Friends of Earlham Cemetery, Norwich
www.friendsofearlhamcemetery.co.uk

LICHENS IN EARLHAM CEMETERY, NORWICH

FRIENDS OF
EARLHAM CEMETERY